

“You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, but showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.” (Deuteronomy 5:8–10, ESV)

Your education is good. Your job is important. Your family is irreplaceable. More important than all of these is the relationship with your Creator! Before you get busier than you already are with school, sports and whatever, let’s get into the habit (or continue the habit) of daily feeding our faith.

1. Make the Sign of the cross to remind you that by the blood of Jesus you are redeemed from sin death and the devil. Say: In the name of the Father and of the and Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
2. Repeat the Ten Commandments and the Apostles Creed.
3. Read a little each day from The Gospel According to Luke.
4. Say the Lord’s Prayer.
5. Sing/read a hymn such as our hymn of the month LSB 618-619, TLH 315 I Come, O Savior, to Thy Table/ Thy Body, Given for Me, O Savior.

Homework:

1. In August you worked on learning the first nineteen books of the New Testament. Continue with those and add the rest of the New Testament books.
2. In Luke’s gospel try to identify things you hear in The Divine Service.
3. What are the major feasts and festivals that occur in Luke? What were they for?
4. Who was Luke? Who was Luke’s original audience?
5. Look up some extra information outside of the Bible on the different Harods and Pontius Pilate.

If you are feeling adventurous you can sign up to be a member and follow the reading plan of Luke and have some discussion by going here: <http://www.Faithlife.com/ziontrinity-e> . You can also share prayer requests and receive announcements.

See our website that is underdevelopment too: <https://ziontrinity-e.faithlifesites.com>

It is a great blessing to share the same saving faith the Apostles taught which was given to them by the Holy Spirit. Thanks be to God!
