

Thoughts for Personal & Family Worship

Text: Exodus 20:17

1. What are some of problems as a society that are rooted in covetousness?
2. Identify some areas of your life that you have struggled with covetousness in. Can you identify of the heart-level desire of these areas? If not, pray and ask God to help you understand the root of these areas.
3. Have you ever acted on a covetous desire (i.e. made a wrong choice because of something you desired so much)? Did the thing you desired so much (coveted) ultimately fulfill you? Why or why not?

Apply it to life: What are some steps you can take to put away covetousness from your life?

Pray about it: Repent of covetousness in your life. Trust Christ to be the ultimate satisfaction of your heart's desires, and look to the grace of the Holy Spirit to empower you to live free of a coveting heart.

Meditate on it: Luke 12:13-21; 1 Timothy 6:3-10

"Covet Christ"

Exodus 20:17

Big Idea: God calls and empowers his people through grace to put away covetousness and be satisfied in Him and with what He has given us.

- I. What is covetousness?
- II. How do we covet?
- III. What is the remedy for covetousness?

Applications:
