What to Say?

Asking questions is always a good way to start a conversation. We have provided a list of sample questions to help you. They are divided into categories.

Format

We suggest that you select a question to ask from each category, finishing with a category 4 question (which is how you can pray for the other person).

Children are not expected to initiate conversations. The questions under Children are some sample questions that you can ask them during Sunday gatherings.

These are only sample questions, you are welcome to ask appropriate questions depending on how well you know your pair partner.

Categories

1. People - something about the person
