Psalm 23 - Matt Chandler

Many people are familiar with Psalm 23. But because we all know it, we often breeze through the psalm without slowing down long enough to rest in the assurance it offers. In this 6-part series on Psalm 23, pastor Matt Chandler introduces us to the great shepherd, the Lord, who promises to provide for every need of his flock. Though only six verses long, this psalm teaches us profound truths about our loving and protective God. By studying Psalm 23, we'll encounter a life-transforming question: Do you trust the Lord to care for your needs?

MISSIONS MOMENT

KENJI AND SANDY KONDO

OPERATION MOBILIZATION

Dear praying friends,

Thank you for your continuing prayer for my Mom Yoshiko. The reason I have not been on top of my email about her is because Sandy needed medical attention besides Shinji & Satoshi. Let's start with Mom.

Yoshiko has been getting better. She has been out of ICU so now kids are allowed to see her. This coming Monday, Dec 23rd, she will be transferred to a hospital that is specialized in rehabilitation so that she can continue to work on rehabilitation over the new years. She still relies on a tube for producing urine, and her right arm & leg are immobilized in most functions. Her daily meds are still fed by a nose tube.

Now I report about Sandy. First, she had pneumonia in November. That time, we still had Mom to help us. 2 weeks after Mom's brain haemorrhage, Sandy couldn't turn her neck, and couldn't open her mouth, and had severe pain—2 days of no food and bed-ridden in pain. In the next 2 days, Sandy had series of medical examinations (blood, ultra sound, CT, X-ray, etc) that led to find large inflammation in both parotid gland & submandibular gland. Fast forward by 1 week, Sandy is now doing much better. We are thankful for local Christians who helped our family by cooking food and watching kids while I was busy driving around for visiting Mom, driving for different medical attention for Sandy, Satoshi and Shinji...

Now I don't want you to think that our life was just spent on hospitals. That's far from truth. During this tough time, we are amazed how God used different things and people for His glory.
