Jason Knoll - Senior Pastor & Interim Youth Pastor

Sarah Collins, Children's Pastor

Here's what you can expect... 10:00- 11:15

Worship

Keep in mind that, as we worship, we are worshipping the Most High God!! Revelation 4 explains in detail what worshipping God looks like. He deserves our honor and respect for He is holy and worthy of our praises! Please join us in expressing our love and adoration to our awesome Savior.

Teaching from the Bible

Our pastor will deliver a message, applying biblical truth to everyday life.

Prayer & Praises

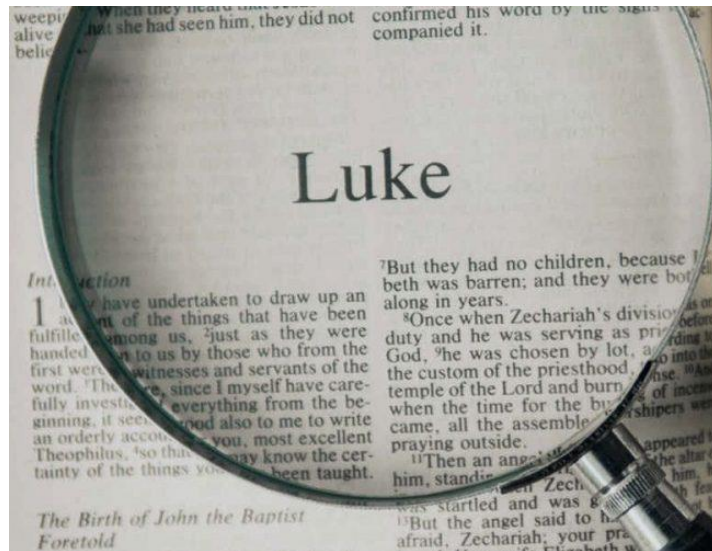

We offer an opportunity for you to share with the Body of Christ any prayer requests you may have. This is also a time for you to encourage other believers by sharing where you have seen God at work recently.

Nursery available after worship & announcements

Feb 14-29 - Administrative Ministry Assistant Job Posting

At the Annual Meeting, direction was given to hire a part-time Administrative Ministry Assistant. The job description for this position is posted on the bulletin board in the Narthex. If interested in applying, you may do so by submitting a resume to Pastor Jason. March 1 is the deadline for submitting a resume. The Board of Trustees will contact all applicants and conduct interviews.

Youth Pastor Search Update

At the Annual Meeting, direction was given to hire a full-time Youth Pastor. Per our newly accepted bylaws, the Senior Pastor functions as the chair of search committees for associate pastors. The Board of Trustees selects a minimum of two or more people for this committee. The committee selection process is underway. Please begin to pray for the person God is directing us to hire. We need God's wisdom!

Building Expansion Task Force Update

At the Annual Meeting, direction was given for the Board of Trustees to form a Task Force to look into building expansion options/opportunities/costs. The Board of Trustees has opted to spend the next month praying before forming the Task Force. Please join us in prayer.
