EARL & CATHY HARTWIG

From Cathy:

In mid-January I received a call from my Mom, asking if I would be able to come back and help with giving care to Dad. I sorted out my tickets and arrived in the U.S. on January 27th. Dad came to pick me up at the airport, used a walker to go into Red Robin for lunch and even teased the waitress. As we gathered that evening in the living room, we had a good visit. (Mind you, I was pretty slap happy as I hadn't really slept in two days.) That evening though, as Dad and Mom were getting ready for bed, Dad said to my Mom, "I think I'm losing it."

Thus started the week of Dad's final battle with brain cancer. Daniella was able to come down from Michigan for a week to help Mom and I with his care (she was a licensed CNA several years ago). Hospice was also a great help during this time.

He went peacefully on February 5. We praise God for every extra day we had with Dad once he was diagnosed in October 2018. We also praise God that Dad is in his new body and enjoying the presence of His Lord.

We are planning his Celebration of Life ceremony on February 22 in Arizona City.

Earl continues to work in PNG on the hospital expansion project while I am in the U.S. I plan to stay at least four more weeks to help Mom with all the various details that need to be dealt with after a spouse passes. We would appreciate your prayers, especially for Mom as she sorts out this next step in her journey.
