Lent

Dear friends,

Welcome to St Peters this morning, it is our prayer you find the service uplifting and the teaching helpful. If you are new or visiting and want to know more about the church, or to have someone contact you there are visitor cards available to be filled in.

Thank you to the members of MU who helped with the refreshments for Randal's funeral on Friday, and all who came to support Carol and the family as we gave thanks for Randal's life.

Please continue to pray for Clive Arkley, Anthea Walthew and John Tingay as they all recover from joint replacement surgery.

Finally, there will be a meeting about the Strategic plan for the parish on Thursday 12 March starting at 7:30pm. All are welcome to attend.

God Bless,

Neil
Senior Minister
St Peter's Anglican Church

“We meet to know and uphold Jesus Christ as Saviour, serve him and others in love, grow as disciples and share Jesus with our community.”

“Train people in the truth of Christ for prayerful outreach to the community.”

We've had praise and prayer updates from our link missionaries— Ed and Amber, and Aiden and Alfinda. Both families are on their way to the mission field.

These are on our Missions board at the back of the church. Remember to keep up with our link Missionaries by regularly checking the Missions board.

PRAYER POINTS

- Pray for CMS including Frances Cook in Santiago, Chile, and staff in the WA State office.
- Pray for Men's ministry and for the groups that meet.
- Pray that we may be diligent in reaching our community with the message of the Gospel, praying particularly for people moving into new suburbs.
- Pray for our 9:30 am Congregation Ministry teams: Musicians, Multi Media, and Service Leaders.
- Continue to pray for Christians in the Nuba Mountains in Sudan.
- Pray for those in our parish who are sick or in need at this time, including Ingrid Bartle, Angie Le Lacheur-Sales and Elizabeth Rowell
- Pray for Carol Pearson and family as they mourns Randal. Give thanks for Randal's faith in the Lord, so for now there is grief but in the future a meeting again in Christ.

Our next Church 'Busy Bee' will be on Saturday 28th March 8am-10am Please add it to your calendar

Angie le Lacheur-Sales has asked if anybody has a car that her son Shaun could borrow while he's here visiting her. He'll be here for about a month. Even just the occasional loan would be most appreciated.

Any offers, please contact Angie on: 08 9306 5178 or 0413 251 789.

Lenten Social Justice

by Chaplain Ross, St Bart's

Lent means many things to many people. For some, it is a time for reflection and contemplation. For others, it is a time for renewal and refocus

The time of Lent for Christians is the six week preparation period for the Easter celebration of the death and resurrection, or the overcoming of death, of Jesus Christ. The Lenten season commences on Ash Wednesday, 26th February, and ends with the Easter celebrations that commence on Maundy Thursday, 9th April, through to Easter Sunday on 12th April.

Traditionally, the Lenten period is a refocusing time. Recommitting in effort in prayer, generosity, and focus on others. So we will often hear Christians talk about what they have given up for Lent.

Usually the answer is around a peripheral item in the individual's life, such as chocolate or coffee. Sometimes it's a more serious focus like no television for six weeks!

This has been rightly challenged as being a very self-focused approach. Mary Hood Hart has written well that the focus would be better if it was moved from self-improvement to self-giving—giving to others.

Our world today presents plenty of opportunities to assist others. Writing to a member of parliament on the need to raise the Newstart Allowance is one example. Supporting the Centre for Asylum Seekers, Refugees and Detainees is another. You could donate to St Bart's, a Wildlife sanctuary caring for animals affected by the Australian bushfire crisis, or any number of deserving organisations. Something as simple as having a lonely neighbour over for a meal can also have a huge impact.
