PASTOR'S BLOG

These things I have spoken unto you, that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. John 16:33 in Him I will have peace.

JOHN 16:33

Peace doesn't mean that we will not have problems. Peace means problems will not have us. Storms come our way, relationships fail, jobs cease and health declines. The market may plummet and the economy may take a dive.

We have access to everything that could possibly make life easier, yet we find ourselves burdened with longer lists of unfinished tasks. It seems now more than ever the harder we work, we fail to accomplish all that we would like to in one day. Discontentment and frustration often take root in the heart robbing us of peace.

Jesus told us to BE OF GOOD CHEER. How can we do that? By standing firm in our faith in Jesus Christ we can have peace and remain cheerful. Because Jesus overcame death, hell and the grave we can be overcomers through him. He tells us that we can have victory by abiding in him. We can see light where there is darkness. A victorious life filled with hope is available to all believers. May this year bring us more hope, joy, peace and victory than we have ever known as we abide in him.

And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Romans 5:5

Abraham Lincoln was a U.S. President, the 16th to be precise. Maybe, we remember something about the Emancipation Proclamation or the Gettysburg Address... but did you know he was born to illiterate parents? Or that he discovered his knack for easy conversation while working in a general store. Look him up and read about him. His birthday is February 12, 1809 Died April 15, 1865.
