TRANSITIONS ARE A TIME

TO GIVE EACH OTHER GRACE

A transition is a change from one thing to another. For example, changing from being in school to doing school at home. Often transitions can lead to worrying or anxiety. Sometimes transitions can feel exciting. It is normal to have different emotions during times of transitions and change.

How do you feel about the changes that are happening in our country right now?

Looking ahead to next week....

How can you show grace and kindness to your family during this new routine of being at home?
