Scripture Reading 1 Corinthians 10:23-11:1 (CSB)

²³ "Everything is permissible," but not everything is beneficial. "Everything is permissible," but not everything builds up.

²⁴ No one is to seek his own good, but the good of the other person.

²⁵ Eat everything that is sold in the meat market, without raising questions for the sake of conscience,

²⁶ since the earth is the Lord's, and all that is in it.

²⁷ If any of the unbelievers invites you over and you want to go, eat everything that is set before you, without raising questions for the sake of conscience.

²⁸ But if someone says to you, "This is food from a sacrifice," do not eat it, out of consideration for the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience.

²⁹ I do not mean your own conscience, but the other person's. For why is my freedom judged by another person's conscience?

³⁰ If I partake with thanksgiving, why am I criticized because of something for which I give thanks?

³¹ So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.

³² Give no offense to Jews or Greeks or the church of God,

³³ just as I also try to please everyone in everything, not seeking my own benefit, but the benefit of many, so that they may be saved.

¹ Imitate me, as I also imitate Christ.
