

Saint John's

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Music at Midday Season 5

Joseph Arndt, organ

17 June 2020
12 noon livestream

PROGRAM

Hymne d'Actions de grâce, "Te Deum"	Jean Langlais (1907-1991)
Adagio in E	Frank Bridge (1879-1941)
Choral in A minor	César Franck (1822-1890)

Joseph Arndt came to Saint John's Episcopal Church in June 2015. During his tenure as Music Director the parish commissioned the new Chancel Organ by Schoenstein & Co. and the music program has grown to include six choirs. He founded the parish's Music at Midday series, which regularly features guest performers from around the country and homemade meals. He received his MM from The Juilliard School and his BM from Westminster Choir College in organ performance, having studied organ with Diane Belcher, Ken Cowan, and Paul Jacobs and conducting with Kent Tritle. His playing has been broadcast live on WWFM The Classical Network, and he has been interviewed for Public Radio Tulsa 88.7 and 89.5. He is the Dean of the Tulsa Chapter of the American Guild of Organists in addition to serving on the Board of Directors for Chamber Music Tulsa and the ear training faculty of The Barthelmes Conservatory.
