Glendale Seventh-day Adventist Church

As a Christian congregation, Glendale Seventh-day Adventist Church’s sanctuary is available for Christian weddings that recognize marriage as the sacred union between a man and a woman according to the Biblical account of Creation.

Sanctuary Information

The sanctuary seats approximately 450 people with 38 pews arranged in two rows. The center aisle is about 100 feet long. An organ (stage left), grand piano (stage right) and sound system are provided as needed. No wedding accessories (kneeling bench, candelabras, etc.) are available onsite. The Bride and her maids may use the ministry room for changing.

Guidelines for Use

- Wedding rehearsal/setup may be scheduled as available except during Sabbath hours.
- Music and conduct must be appropriate for the sacredness of the wedding service.
- Furniture can only be moved by permission and must be returned to its place after the event.
- Only tape may be used on the carpet or pews. Nothing may be attached to any walls.
- Confetti, rice, birdseed or food are not permitted in the sanctuary.
- Cigarettes, alcohol or other drugs are not allowed on campus.

All rental fees must be paid at least two weeks in advance. In addition, a refundable deposit of $250 is required at the time of reservation and will be returned if the renter takes care of clean up after the event. If the church has to clean up, the refund will be forfeited. Cancellations within two weeks of the wedding date will likewise forfeit the refund. Renter will be charged for any damages over $250.
