

Catholic Parish of St Edmund, King and Martyr, Godalming

with St Joseph's, Milford

Through the love of the Father, Son and Spirit, our Parish will grow as the Body of Christ in Godalming.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time 26th July 2020

Four years ago, because of the call in our time to “reflect in a more profound way on the dignity of Woman, on the New Evangelisation and on the greatness of the Mystery of Divine Mercy”, Pope Francis raised the celebration of St Mary Magdalene (22nd July) to a Feast. Last week we used the new preface written for the feast for the first time. It’s a really good and clear text and sums up so well what it is to be a faithful disciple – the way of living to which we are called. It stands as a reminder that Mary Magdalene was not simply one of the women who followed Jesus and the twelve, but is given the central role of bringing them the gospel of the resurrection – in the words of St Thomas Aquinas she is an “apostle of the apostles”.

'It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, to glorify you in all things, almighty Father, whose mercy is not less than your power, through Christ our Lord.

He appeared in the garden and revealed himself to Mary Magdalene, who had loved him in life, witnessed him dying on the Cross, sought him as he lay in the tomb, and was the first to adore him, newly risen from the dead.

He honoured her with the office of being an apostle to the Apostles, so that the good news of new life might reach the ends of the earth.

And so, Lord, with all the Angels and Saints, we, too, give you thanks, as in exultation we acclaim...'

Responses for Mass

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

God is in his holy place, God who unites those who dwell in his house;
he himself gives might and strength to his people.

PSALM RESPONSE:

Lord, how I love your law!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits.

Update on Buildings An email update on parish buildings went out this week and printed copies are available at the back of church. It confirms what would be possible in developing St Joseph's and tentatively raises the question of whether an option of developing St Edmund's should be explored. Fr Jonathan welcomes your feedback and any questions you may have.

Public Masses It has been so good to welcome people back to Mass over the last few weeks. After a long fast it has been a reminder of just how important it is in our lives and for the world. The Sunday obligation continues to be dispensed so please do not feel guilty if you don't feel ready to come back just yet – we will all adjust at our own speed and that's quite appropriate.

- Mass won't be at the usual times, so please check.
- We will continue to observe 2m distancing of seating rather than 1m+.
- Face coverings are not mandatory, but will be encouraged when in Church with others from next week.
- We will clean the church after each use.
- We will continue to celebrate Sunday Liturgy at the 10am Saturday Mass, and with Sunday Liturgy of the Word online.
- It's likely that there will be enough space at Weekday Masses if you want to come but you might wish to check.
- We are using a booking system for weekend Masses, using an online form: <https://tinyurl.com/y9qmmk2r> You only need fill out the form once as we will use the information you provide to help us allocate places for the coming weeks. However, if your preferences change – e.g. in view of the 9am St John's/12 noon St Joseph's options - please do fill out the form again, or email or phone the parish office.

It is likely that there will be reduced provision of Mass over the August Bank Holiday weekend to allow Fr Jonathan to take a break. At present many of our priests who would usually supply are either engaged elsewhere or taking Covid-19 precautions.

Churches are open for private prayer on Sundays (4-5 pm) at St Edmund's and Wednesdays (10-11 am) at St Joseph's. A big thank you to all those who have helped with the stewarding and cleaning. We will keep this under review.

Sacrament of Penance (Confession) or Anointing of the Sick are available by arrangement with Fr Jonathan. Guidelines have now been issued on Communion for the housebound and we hope to resume this once stricter shielding finishes at the end of the month.

First Holy Communion 2021 Registration for this is now open. The form can be found on the website at <https://stedsgod.com/fhc>. If you have children who wish to make their First Holy Communion this summer or in the coming year, please do try to get back into the habit of coming to Church – even if only to light a candle at first – after our long break. It will help your children and be a source of God's help and grace in these challenging times.

First Holy Communions and Confirmations 2020. Plans are in hand for these celebrations which we hope will take place from September, and we will keep you updated.

Draft Parish Pastoral Plan

I wrote recently about a Parish Pastoral Plan which I hope will help and guide us as we resume parish life. In other times I would introduce it at our Sunday Masses, but given current constraints I have shared it online, commend it for your prayer and reflection and look forward to receiving your questions, comments and input. Please do make some time to read the plan: you can pick up a copy at the back of church, or download a copy: <https://tinyurl.com/y7eftwp6> The plan is a work in progress and there will be an important next stage which prioritises its various elements.

Lourdes virtual pilgrimage This year the Lourdes Pilgrimage takes place virtually from 25th to 30th July, and details of all the virtual events – including those for families and Redshirts (years 10&11) can be found at www.ablourdes2020.org

Lectio Divina This is a very special and fruitful way of praying with the Scriptures and takes place online every Wednesday 7.30pm – 8.45pm on GoToMeeting.
