_____ . Amen

For six years plant and harvest your crops, but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow... Exodus 23:10-11

This meant that the Israelites were not to plant any crops in that field on the 7th year. They were to leave it alone and let it recover for its 6 years of work.

In the seventh year God commanded the people and the land to have a Sabbath, a special year dedicated to God himself.

God knew that the land and people needed to take a rest. But, He did not mean that the people were supposed to sleep for the whole year. God meant something different.

Use the code to find out what time Hosea 10:12 says it is.
