

God wants your life to grow good crops and spiritual fruit.

In the seventh year God commanded the people and the land to have a Sabbath, a special year dedicated to God himself.