

If my people will respond by humbling themselves, praying, and seeking my presence...I'll be there waiting for them! I'll listen from heaven, forgive their sins, and restore them to health. From now on, I'm alert day and night to the prayers offered at this place.

—2 Chronicles 7:14

UNITED

IN PRAYER

SUNDAY, SEPT. 13 | 1:00-1:30 PM | FRONT STREET

Join with us as people from every Lynden church and every background line Front Street from downtown to Fairway seeking God's protection and giving thanks for His continued grace. Starting at the Phoebe statue at 6th and Front and being sensitive to COVID distancing guidelines, spread out accordingly. Feel free to bring a blanket or chairs. We would love to see Front Street lined with praying people from downtown to Fairway and beyond!

A suggested prayer outline can be found at lyndenprayer.com or by contacting your local church. The bells of First Reformed Church will signal the beginning and close of the prayer time.

Pray for each other so that you can live together whole and healed. The prayer of a person living right with God is something powerful to be reckoned with. —James 5:16
