

Catholic Parish of St Edmund, King and Martyr, Godalming

with St Joseph's, Milford

Through the love of the Father, Son and Spirit, our Parish will grow as the Body of Christ in Godalming.

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time 13th September 2020

Try to love your wounds; they carry the secret of your new power.

Your wounds, in the long run, can make you stronger. Is your current suffering healing you or damaging you, making your heart stronger or weaker? Life breaks all of us, but many learn to grow at the broken places. The place of the wound is the place of healing. Learn how to turn the stumbling blocks of your life into stepping stones to your new freedom. A huge secret of happiness is knowing how to accept, to use and thus transform your pain, your humiliations, tensions and past injustices. If you resist, deny and fume in angry emotions, you stay stuck in narrow ways, victimised by your own thoughts.

This is not going to be easy. Loving your wounds is a tall order. Yet every world religion, every wise counsel, places the cross of suffering at the centre of its teaching, about acquiring a happier heart.

Is not the cup that holds your wine the very cup that was burned in the potter's oven? .... Look deep into your heart and you shall find it is only that which has given you sorrow that is giving you joy. – Kahlil Gibran.

Daniel O'Leary

Responses for Mass

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you, that your prophets be found true.
Hear the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel.

PSALM RESPONSE:

The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy.

Gospel Acclamation:

Speak, Lord, your servant is listening: you have the message of eternal life.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

The chalice of blessing that we bless is a communion in the Blood of Christ;
and the bread that we break is a sharing in the Body of the Lord.
