Twenty-Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time 20th September 2020

Do you want to make a huge difference in the world, like Albert McMakin?

'I heard about a man called Albert McMakin. He was 24 years of age, he was a farmer, he'd just become a Christian and he was really excited. So, he heard that there was this event going on where someone was speaking about Jesus, and he decided he would invite all his friends. And he'd got this old van, and there was one guy he really wanted to come. He was a farmer's son, and he really wasn't interested. This guy had lots of girlfriends, he was a very good-looking guy. And he thought, 'How am I going to get him to come?' So eventually he said to him, 'Look, would you drive the van?' And the guy said, 'Okay, well, I'll drive the van. I'm not particularly keen to come in, but I'll drive the van'.

'And he came along and drove the van. He found, much to his surprise, that he was interested in what was going on. He went back night after night after night. And on the last night the speaker said, 'Look, if you want to give your life to Jesus, come to the front.' And this farmer's son got up and went to the front. Since that day, that person has spoken to 210 million people in person about the Christian faith. He's been the friend and confidant of nine American Presidents and was invited by Queen Elizabeth II to a private meeting. And he's spoken — not live, but through television and so on — to half the world's population. His name was Billy Graham. We can't all be Billy Grahams, but we can all be Albert McMakins! We can all be the one who says, 'Come and see' and brings our friends to Christ.'

Arrangements for Mass

- We now have something like 180 households wishing to come to Mass on a weekend, which is wonderful. But it does mean that it's moving more towards having a place every other week. If you would like to change the Mass to which we are allocating you, please let us know. There is greater demand for places at 6pm and 9am.
- If you have not yet asked to be added to the lists for Mass you can do so online with our form (<https://stedsgod.com/Coronavirus>) or by contacting Sarah in the parish office.
- As cases rise again, please take care when outside church not to gather in groups of more than 6 and to observe social distancing.
- The Sunday obligation continues to be dispensed so please don't feel guilty if you aren't ready to come back just yet.
- Face coverings should be worn in Church unless exempt (such as children under 11)
- We will clean the church after each use and continue to observe social distancing.
- There is a basket for the Collection at the entrance. Thank you for your financial support for the parish.

First Holy Communion Celebration Mass

We look forward to welcoming 34 of the children of the parish to Holy Communion at Masses this weekend and next. Please pray for these children and their families – that the Lord will help them to grow in love for the Eucharist. The 10:30am Mass will not have space for other parishioners on those weeks. You might like to stream Mass from Guildford or come to a weekday Mass if you are able.

Confirmation Preparation for students in Years 10+ will begin in the New Year.

Wednesday Word children's activity sheet for each Sunday. This is currently free online and available at:

The Season of Creation has become a regular part of September and it extends to 4th October, the feast of St Francis of Assisi, named as long ago as 1979 as the patron saint of those who promote ecology. We will join with this in a Novena to Saint Francis from this Thursday 24th, for a world under threat. There are nine brief reflections asking St Francis of Assisi to pray for us and our world, based on his beautiful Canticle of the Sun. The novena prayer can be found at:
<https://tinyurl.com/y65o82t6>

All Saints Party We are thinking of holding an "All Saints" Party for children on 31st October 4.00–5.30pm with some fun games and activities online and an opportunity to dress up as your favourite saint. If you might be able and willing to help with this, please contact Fr Jonathan.

Next online CTG Prayer Breakfast is on Saturday 26th September at 8:30 am. Zoom ID: 9463914833, password: 2020. Each person to provide their own breakfast!

Sycamore There has been some interest in this series introducing our Catholic Christian faith and we are looking at offering it online in the parish <https://www.sycamore.fm>

October is the month of the Rosary.

November is the month of Holy Souls.
Please let Fr Jonathan know if there are graves you would like blessing in Eashing or elsewhere.

Coming up further afield...
