A DAY IN WORSHIP: On communion Sundays, the Service of the Sacrament follows the prayer of the church. The ancient church termed this entire portion of the liturgy the Eucharist, which is Greek for thanksgiving. This shows us how the earliest Christians viewed communion. It was a celebration, a moment of joy, because the risen Christ was now present to distribute his gifts to his people. In the Lutheran tradition, we have sometimes allowed a mournful, penitential attitude to overwhelm what should be a moment of great joy. It is true that we are sinners. It is true that we need forgiveness from God. But it is also true that the promise of forgiveness, life, and salvation are present for us and gifted to us by Christ himself every time we celebrate communion. If that does not give us great joy, what on earth can? Next time we celebrate communion, listen closely to the words of the first prayer, the proper preface. Though the middle portion of the prayer changes according to the season, it always begins, "It is truly good, right, and salutary, that we should at all times and in all places, give thanks to you, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God." And it always ends, "We laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying..." When you come to worship the first Sunday in December, be ready to take communion with great joy. Christ is present to give you life.

HYMN OF THE DAY: Today is the last Sunday of the church year. It is often called "Christ the King" Sunday because of its emphasis on Christ's eternal reign. We see this emphasis in the Gospel lesson, which pictures the Son of Man (Christ) seated on his glorious throne, surrounded by angels, prepared to judge all nations. Our hymn of the day, The King Shall Come When Morning Dawns, emphasizes Christ's coming again in glory. He will not come again as a little child, to live and fight and die, but crowned with glory like the sun (2). While this coming will cause some to mourn, it is joy and salvation for God's people. The light of Christ's glory will shatter the darkness of this sinful world, and his people shall see him face to face. Therefore we pray, "Come quickly, King of kings!" (5).

ABOUT THE BULLETIN COVER: Two thousand years ago, Jesus came in humility, born of a virgin in a stable, and took up a cross, suffering and dying. But there will come a day when He comes again in glory, and every knee shall bow and tongue confess that He is Lord. We look forward to that day because His cross has brought forgiveness, and His glorious return will complete the restoration of all things.

BIBLE READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY: Isaiah 64:1-9; Corinthians 1:3-9; Mark 11:1-10

+ CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION +

OPENING HYMN: THE KING SHALL COME WHEN MORNING DAWNS LSB 348

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,
C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,
C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

(Brief Silence for Inward Confession)

P O almighty God, merciful Father,
C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen.

+ SERVICE OF THE WORD +

INTROIT Psalm 39:4–5a, 7–8, 12; antiphon: 2 Peter 3:13 NIV

In keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth,
the home of righteousness.
O LORD, make me know my end and what is the measure of my days;
let me know how fleeting I am!

Behold, you have made my days a few handbreadths,
and my lifetime is as nothing before you.

And now, O Lord, for what do I wait?

My hope is in you.

Deliver me from all my transgressions.

Do not make me the scorn of the fool!

Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear to my cry; hold not your peace at my tears!

For I am a sojourner with you, a guest, like all my fathers.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son

and to the Holy Spirit;

as it was in the beginning,

is now, and will be forever. Amen.

In keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth,
the home of righteousness.

SALUTATION AND COLLECT OF THE DAY

P Let us pray.

C Eternal God, merciful Father, You have appointed Your Son as judge of the living and the dead. Enable us to wait for the day of His return with our eyes fixed on the kingdom prepared for Your own from the foundation of the world; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
