Celebration of The Lord's Supper

The Institution

Leader: Hear the story of how the sacrament began. On the night that Jesus was betrayed, he sat at supper with his disciples. While they were eating, he took a piece of bread, said a blessing, broke it, and gave it to them with the words:

People: "This is my body. It is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me. He took the cup, saying, this cup is God's covenant, sealed with my blood. Drink from it, all of you, to remember me."

Leader: So now following Jesus example and command, take this bread and this cup, the ordinary things of the world, which Christ will use for extraordinary purposes. As he said a prayer before sharing the meal, let us also pray together.

Prayer of Consecration – Conclude with the Lord's Prayer

The Teaching

Leader: We remember in this supper the perfect sacrifice, offered once for all on the cross, by our Lord Jesus Christ for the sin of the whole world.

People: In the joy of the resurrection and in the expectation of his coming again, we offer ourselves to you as holy and living sacrifices.

Leader: Send your Holy Spirit upon us, that the bread we break and the cup we bless may be to us the communion of the body and blood of Christ.

People: Being joined together in him, may we attain the unity of the faith, and grow up in all things unto Christ, our Lord.

Our Profession - HC Q&A1

Leader: What is your only comfort in life and in death?

All: That I am not my own, but belong – body and soul, in life and in death – to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven; in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me whole-heartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

The Invitation

Leader: All of you who are sorry for your sins and believe in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and have professed this in a Christian Church, God calls you to take part in this celebration. For those of you who have not yet made this commitment to Christ, God asks that you wait until a time when you are able to profess Him as your Savior.

Song ~ CH 287 A Communion Hymn for Christmas

Leader: Come then, to the joyful feast of our Lord! O taste and see that the LORD is good; happy are those who take refuge in him.

All: Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift in Jesus.

The Communion

Thanksgiving

Leader: People of God, since the Lord has fed us at his table, let us lift up His Holy name with Thanksgiving.

People: Joy to the world, the Lord has come! Worthy is the Lamb that was slain who has redeemed us to God by his blood, to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and praise. To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honor, glory and power, forever and ever. Amen! (Rev. 5:12 & 13)
