The 19th Century Scottish minister, Robert Murray M'Cheyne, (sometimes spelled McCheyne) lived from 1813-1843, prepared a plan for Bible reading to take readers through the New Testament and Psalms twice a year, and through the rest of the Bible once each year. There are approximately 4 chapters per day in this plan.

Originally M'Cheyne listed two columns labeled "Family" and two labeled "Secret". He intended that the Scripture listings in the "Family" columns be read in family devotions, and those in "Secret" columns be read privately, in personal devotions. If you desire to use this reading plan in that way, the first two passages each day are for family devotions and the second two are for personal devotions.
