About Issaquah Christian Church

The church was started 1970, when students from then Puget Sound Christian College saw the need for a church in Issaquah and started one. They first met in Gibson Hall near the fish hatchery and then moved to the Mercantile Building. The first building was built in 1980 on our existing property just south of downtown to better serve the members and the community.

God has provided various pastors and leaders at the right time to help ICC serve the Greater Eastside and bring the message of hope in Jesus. The church is elder led and staff run. Aaron Bauer (also one of the elders) has been the Senior Pastor since July 2016 and manages the staff. You can find out more about him, his family, ministry, style and the church using the following links.
