Fifth Sunday of the Year

Looking forward to Lent?

If I'm honest, the prospect of a season of self-denial and giving things up isn't particularly attractive at the moment. I'm still consoling myself with Christmas goodies. The chocolate, cheese and wine is being transferred from the sideboard to my waist and I'm in no mood to do anything about it while it is cold and damp. And yet the "joyful season of Lent" begins in 10 days' time, and I think we all know that if we don't think about it now then it will be half-way through before we settle into anything and then we get distracted by the major March feasts. So perhaps this weekend we might have a little think about what Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving might mean this year. The best Lent usually has a little of each, not just one of the three.

Prayer is where everything in our lives begins. It matters less how we pray than that we pray, or at least make a concerted effort to do so. If you fancy something new to try then I'd recommend a daily examen (a web search will give lots of good resources to explain it), or Lectio Divina. Be smart with your prayer plan. Remember that you are probably trying to change a well-established pattern of the day, so plan ahead about when and where you will do it.

Fasting, or self-denial, is about helping us to experience that "man does not live on bread alone". The discipline of COVID restrictions are penitential enough for most of us. So, my recommendation for this year would be to take on some small act of self-denial, just as a daily reminder that it is a different time of year.

Almsgiving is that work of charity which flows from our prayer and self-denial. It is a good time to review our giving to the poor. Some ideas for this year: include something for the foodbank each time you shop; make contact with someone who is isolated by phone or letter; if you are not spending what you usually do on going out or holidays might you benefit from giving some of that to provide clean water in Africa; take part in CAFOD's Water Walk each day.

Mass during Lockdown

Places of worship remain open and coming to them is a permitted reason to come out of the house. This is a welcome privilege and should be used prudently and with due caution, moderation, and discretion.

The main focus of parish activity for the present has moved online, while still providing opportunities to come to Mass.

10.30am Sunday Online Liturgy of the Word replaces the Mass of that time. An opportunity to meet up with others, to sing a little and share some of our prayers with one another. Zoom ID:846 7892 5944, pwd:2021.

"Invited" Lent Diocesan Online Mission

Bishop Richard is encouraging us to join in with a Diocesan online mission this Lent. There will be a video each week with questions for prayer and reflection followed by small groups on Zoom each Thursday evening. It will be a good opportunity for some inspiring input and to share our journey of faith with people from across our diocese. For more details and to register please visit: <https://www.abdiocese.org.uk/invited>

Ash Wednesday will see Mass at 7.30am and 10.00am and a "drive in" option for receiving ashes.

Stations of the Cross will take place on Fridays in Lent, mainly online.

Lent Resources for Children We have copies of colouring books for Stations of The Cross and the Easter Story for younger children and an Activity Book for children age 7-12 available at the back of St Edmund's Church. Please feel free to pop by and collect if you would like them for your family. A small contribution is requested to cover the cost.

CAFOD Walk for Water Are you a keen walker? Looking for a challenge this Lent? Join CAFOD's walk for water challenge and walk 10,000 steps a day, for 40 days, in solidarity with all those who do not have access to a safe water source. Whether you hop it, skip it, run it, jump it, dance it or stomp it. It doesn't matter how you do it, just as long as you put your heart and soul into it! Sign up at <https://walk.cafod.org.uk> and go the distance this Lent to help end water poverty. Jo and Julian Lewry have signed up for this challenge: so please do join them and sponsor them at <https://walk.cafod.org.uk/fundraising/Jo-LewryW4W>

There is also an option to join the Big Walk for Water on Saturday 20th February. Sadly, we can't walk together, but whether alone or in your bubble, and whether in your garden or further afield, we can walk in solidarity with those who have to walk for water every day. For more information email jolewry@aol.com and to sponsor: www.justgiving.com/fundraising/stedmundsgodalming

School Governors play a vital role in ensuring good education for children. If you feel you could contribute in this way to future generations please speak with Fr Jonathan. We are always looking for good governors for St Edmund's, and there is a particular need at St Joseph's Special School in Cranleigh.

Donations to the Food Bank There is an urgent need for tinned meals (eg meatballs, chilli, sausages and beans) and tinned vegetarian meals (eg vege versions of ravioli, sausages, meatballs etc), Canned vegetables. Wet wipes, size 5/6 nappies, pasta (not macaroni). Please drop off items in the collection boxes at church; and/or make a cash donation to fund online food shopping. Email: stmarkscentre@googlemail.com

Year of St Joseph Pope Francis has proclaimed 2021 as Year of Joseph to mark the 150th anniversary of the declaration of the Joseph as patron of the Universal Church.

Financial support for the parish

Thank you to those who support the parish by regular giving. To arrange a standing order, or to sign up for Gift Aid, please contact Eileen Hudson on 01483 208238 or eileen.hudson@gmail.com. There will be a second collection next weekend for the Diocesan Lourdes Pilgrimage Fund.

Safeguarding Training Thank you to all who are bringing their safeguarding training up to date and helping us to meet our compliance deadline of 31st March. This will make an important contribution to ensuring that we do not miss any opportunities as a church to prevent harm that might otherwise arise to the children or adults at risk that we have the privilege to serve.

URGENT /livesimply message Despite recent promises from the UK government that it will no longer support fossil fuels overseas, there are worrying loopholes and exemptions in their policy document which will compromise efforts to address the climate crisis. The open consultation closes at 11.45pm on Monday 8th February, so please email your views asap with the subject line:
