Today, Sunday December 27— Masks are strongly encouraged by the elders and deacons. Free masks are available in the foyer. Please use hand sanitizer as you enter the auditorium and fellowship areas. On Sunday mornings the auditorium class is studying “Fruit of the Spirit” with Dan Green. There are no Sunday evening devotionals until January 17 at a new time... 6pm. On Wednesday evenings the auditorium is studying the Gospel of Matthew with special attention to auditory impact, the effect of hearing the word and marking significant verses in a chapter-by-chapter study with Dan Green. The children will be studying lessons from the New Testament on Sun. AM and Wed. PM. There will be no fellowship meal in January.

Summary of December Events—A cart to stack folding chairs was ordered. * Jackson Electric converted our street sign to use LED bulbs. * Mike Kirby presented lessons on visionary leadership on Dec. 13. * We donated $300 to Fair Haven Children’s Home near Springfield, MO. * We donated the change from the coin cans, $200, to Hope Harbor in Claremore, OK. * We sent Christmas donations from members to the Yosts and Andersons.

Guest Speaker on January 10—Dennis McClintock of Churches of Christ Disaster Relief Effort (www.disasterrelieffort.org) will be speaking during the Bible class time and the sermon time. Dennis and wife live in Brookline, MO. He has worked many disasters and has trained and certified people to setup local Community Emergency Response Teams (CERT). Ronnie Logston is our back-up speaker that day in case Dennis is called away to a disaster.

Heart of America Leadership Training for Christ (hoaltc.org)—Families, this year’s April 2-3 conference focuses on Romans and James with the theme “Fresh Start.” Soon you will be able to start various projects!
