Closing Prayer

To the parents of our young children, may we suggest...

Relax! God put the wiggle in the children; please don't think that you need to suppress it in God's house. All are welcome!

Feel free to sit towards the front where it might be easier for your little one to see the Pastor and hear what is happening during the service. They tire of seeing the backs of other's heads.

Have them sing the worship songs and pray with you.
Children learn by watching and copying what you do.

If you need to leave the service with your child, feel free to do so, but please come back. Jesus said,
"Let the little children come to me".

Remember that the way we welcome children in our church directly affects the way they respond to the Church, to God, and to one another. Let them know that they are at home in this house of worship.

*There are activity booklets relevant to the season
(and crayons) on the back table for the young children.
Please feel free to pick one up each time you come.*

To our congregation:

The presence of children is a gift from God to us. Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.

Tecumseh Place Ministry Liaison

We would like to become a ministry partner with Tecumseh Place. This would involve us doing small “events”(singing songs, baking cookies, bible readings, craft projects, etc.) there to help the residents and their walk in faith. The Ministry Liaison does not have to do the events, only organize them. Please see Pastor Brian if you are interested in this ministry, either coordinating or helping.

Caregivers are needed –

2 different positions – live-in and evening only
Please see Tim Smith for details

The 1689 Baptist Confession of Faith

Chapter 20 - The Gospel and the Extent of Its Grace

3. The gospel has been revealed to sinners in various times and in different places, along with the promises and precepts describing the obedience it requires. The particular nations and individuals who are granted this revelation are chosen solely according to the sovereign will and good pleasure of God.⁶ This choice does not depend on any promise to those who demonstrate good stewardship of their natural abilities based on common light received apart from the gospel. No one has ever done this nor can anyone do so.⁷ Therefore, in every age the preaching of the gospel to individuals and nations has been granted in widely varying degrees of expansion and contraction, according to the counsel of the will of God.

⁶Psalms 147:20; Acts 16:7

⁷Romans 1:18–32

The Valley of Vision

BACKSLIDING

O LORD,

When the world's unbelievers reject thee, and are so forsaken by thee that thou callest them no more, it is to thine own thou dost turn, for in such seasons of general apostasy they in some measure backslide with the world.

O how free is thy grace that reminds them of the danger that confronts them and urges them to persevere in adherence to thyself!

I bless thee that those who turn aside may return to thee immediately, and be welcomed without anything to commend them, notwithstanding all their former backslidings.

I confess that this is suited to my case, for of late I have found great want, and lack of apprehension of divine grace; I have been greatly distressed of soul because I did not suitably come to the fountain that purges away all sin; I have labored too much for spiritual life, peace of conscience, progressive holiness, in my own strength.

I beg thee, show me the arm of all might; give me to believe that thou canst do for me more than I ask or think, and that, though I backslide, thy love will never let me go, but will draw me back to thee with everlasting cords;

That thou dost provide grace in the wilderness,
and canst bring me out, leaning on the arm of my Beloved;

That thou canst cause me to walk with him by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein I shall not stumble.

Keep me solemn, devout, faithful, resting on free grace for assistance, acceptance, and peace of conscience.

Hebrews 3:1-6
Moses who?

The logic is simple: in light of the great salvation provided, consider Jesus.

_____ (1)
v.1

The word emphasizes that the blood of Christ has sanctified and cleansed the church.

1 Corinthians 3:17

_____ (2)
v.2-3

Although Moses was faithful in relaying God's law, his appointed rose was to point toward the coming Son of God.

Deuteronomy 18:15

John 5:45-46

This transition [from angels to Moses] takes readers one step closer to the center of the theology of Hebrews: Jesus Christ is the climax of redemptive history and the fulfillment of all of God's Old Testament promises, prophecies and patterns.

_____ (3)
v.4

To be part of the church is to have historical roots in the people of God and spiritual connectedness to others now, in past ages, and in generations to come.

1 Peter 2:4-5

Ephesians 2:19-20

Squirrel

_____ (4)
v.5-6a

The entire Old Testament is one large arrow pointing to the coming Messiah.

_____ (5)
v.6b

The author of Hebrews and the rest of Scripture teach that only those who persevere in faith will be saved, and that all how have genuine faith will persevere.

1 John 2:19
