The Bible in One Year Week 7: Exodus – A Guided Tour (Pt. 2)

Exodus 19:3-8, 20:1-18, 34:6-8; 1 Peter 2:9-10

4 Stops around Mount Sinai

- Stop 1: The M_____ and the T_____
Living as God's people in this world is about living in right relationship with God and with others.
- Stop 2: The T_____
All that we've read so far, from Genesis to Exodus, has been about getting us back to the Garden. God created us for relationship and God wants us to be near.
- Stop 3: The G_____ C_____
Thank God that redemption depends not on our faithfulness, but on God's. God has to take evil seriously or He would not be good, but God is also full of love, mercy, and compassion. He always makes a way for redemption with His people—no matter how many times we fail.
- Stop 4: The G_____ of God
In God's Story, human failure doesn't have the last word: God's faithful love has the final say. In the end, God chooses to stick with these people anyway. The Covenant is renewed, they finish the Tabernacle, and God's glory comes to dwell in their midst.
