Lee Baldwin Tributes

It is not often that a volunteer heads up the same ministry for 35 consecutive years, but Lee Baldwin has done just that--directing Bellflower Brethren's Cubbie program since 1985. Lee's longevity in ministry is impressive but what is even more noteworthy is the character and quality of her service. Her calm, organized, creative, and loving ministry style has blessed literally hundreds of children and their parents. She has been a mentor not just to kids but also to the dozens of volunteers she has trained, inspired, encouraged, and deployed. Lee began ministering with preschoolers as a young teenager working with her Mom in the Sunday morning preschool program and she has never lost her love for the littlest and the "least of these". Lee will be moving to Pennsylvania this summer to be closer to some of her kids and grandkids. While we hate to see her go, we are praying for God's very best for her as she discovers new avenues of ministry. May God bless her as she has blessed so many of us! You can share a note of encouragement to Lee, letting her know how God blessed your family through her, by going to the church website bellflowerbrethren.org, clicking on the "Connections" menu at the top of the page and scrolling down to , and clicking on, "Updates & Forms". Lee hates the spotlight or being the center of attention. So, thanks for helping us give Lee the only kind of "send off" she will appreciate and enjoy!
