Today, Sunday March 28— Masks are strongly encouraged by the elders and deacons. Free masks are available in the foyer. Please use hand sanitizer as you enter the auditorium and fellowship areas.

* The Bad News: The COVID-19 is still spreading. ☹️

* The Good News: The elders and deacons continue to make it possible to have two Bible studies and a worship service every week at the building and broadcast it for those who are self quarantined!

* On Sunday mornings the auditorium class is studying the book of Genesis with Dean Hansen.

* Sunday evening devotionals are at 6pm. Everyone is invited!

* On Wednesday evenings the auditorium class is studying the Gospel of Matthew with special attention to auditory impact, the effect of hearing the word and marking significant verses in a study.

* There will be no fellowship meal in April.

Summary of March Events—A new camera was purchased and installed for broadcasting our meetings. Thanks Dan! * We said “See you later.” to our brother Joe Rhoads. * We heard another good sermon from our guest speaker, Joe Duran, of Jefferson City. Afterwards he treated some of us to lunch! * Corey Salter fixed the keyboard drawer in the office! Thanks Corey!

LESSONS FROM FIRST SAMUEL

1 Samuel 2:22-25 "Eli was very old. He kept hearing about everything his sons were doing to all the Israelites. He also heard how his sons were sleeping with the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>23</sup> So Eli said to his sons, "Why are you doing these things? All the people are telling me about the evil things you are doing. <sup>24</sup> No, my sons. The report I hear isn't good. And it's spreading among the Lord's people. <sup>25</sup> If a person sins against someone else, God can help that sinner. But if anyone sins against the Lord, who can help them?" In spite of what their father Eli said, his sons didn't pay any attention to his warning. That's because the Lord had already decided to put them to death."

LESSONS TO LEARN:

- Obey Your Parents.
  - Under the Law of Moses a stubborn son who repeatedly disobeyed his parents lived under the threat of death by stoning by the people in his town. Deuteronomy 21:18-21. Apparently, Eli never took his sons to the people in his town. After all, it would be a hard thing for a father to do.
  - Under the New Covenant, children are also to obey their parents. Ephesians 6:1-4
  - The advantages of children obeying their parents may be enumerable, but definitely include setting a good example, getting along with others, growing up to be a good citizen and hopefully a strong Christian active in Christ's church and... helping their father meet the qualifications of an elder or deacon!
  - The disadvantages of children disobeying their parents may also be enumerable, but definitely include lots of headaches for their parents and possibly other relatives; conflicts with siblings; conflicts with the law; which would put them in conflict with God... which would not help their father meet the qualifications of an elder or deacon.
  - So... every chance you get... encourage a young child (3-9 yrs) or a tween (10-12 yrs) or a teen (13-19 yrs) to obey their parents.
