

Living in the Anointing, Relying on the Truth- Part 2

The Book of Psalms

Shrewsbury Gospel Temple

60 Day Reading Plan

Welcome to the next part of our journey of Living in the Anointing and Relying on THE Truth! If you participated with us in part one, as we highlighted the entire Bible chronologically, you have, without a doubt, learned some new things, been reminded of old truths, and have hopefully cultivated a daily habit, and ultimate love, of getting into God’s Word.

As we dive right back into our daily practice for part two, we are going to be traveling through the entire Book of Psalms. The Book of Psalms is the longest book in the Bible with its 150 individual Psalms. A psalm is a prayer, poem, or hymn that focuses the worshipper’s thoughts on God in praise and adoration. There are different kinds of psalms recorded in this book, such as psalms of praise, wisdom, lament, and poetry, all written by multiple authors like David, Solomon, Asaph, and many others.

As we make our way through this book, we will discover many emotions, feelings, and positions of the author’s heart. But, although the author may be going through a vast array of situations, one thing will remain constant. God is the same Lord in all the psalms. It is we, who respond to Him in different ways, depending on our mood or situation. But what a marvelous God we worship; A God that is high and lifted up beyond our human experiences, but also close enough to touch and who walks beside us along life’s way.

We can bring all our feelings to God—no matter how negative or complaining they may be—and we can rest assured that He will hear and understand. The psalms teach us that the most profound prayer of all is a cry for help, as we find ourselves overwhelmed by the problems of life. While we discover this early “songbook” of the church, let us be reminded of the consistency of the God that we serve.

We’ll begin on, Monday, April 5th and finish on Thursday, June 3rd. Our hope and prayer is that this will help each and every one of us to continue developing that habit of reading God’s Word, and maintaining the spiritual health of our relationship with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Have fun with it, share it, enjoy it, but most of all, let us take the opportunity afforded to us, to learn more about God and His truth.

As you read each Psalm, keep in mind these few questions:

1. What is the main theme of the Psalm?
2. What does this Psalm teach you about God? About yourself?
3. How can what you just read inform your thoughts, words, and actions?
