The Relevance of the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ

“The key to Christianity is the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the grave. That is the heart of the matter. For Christianity does not claim that Jesus was a good teacher and a fine man. It maintains that in Jesus, God broke into our world. His whole life was a demonstration of what God is like. And when men crucified him through envy and hatred on the first Good Friday, God raised him from the dead on Easter day, vindicating his claims, his teaching, his life and his sacrificial death... That is, and always has been, the Christian claim. So if you want to examine the truth of Christianity, and whether or not you can credit the answers it gives to the problems of our world, it is to the resurrection you should turn.” —Michael Green

Benediction

If it's true, ...

- ... the power of death is broken, and the root of bondage, the fear of death is severed, and we can be freed;
- ... you don't need to get to the top in order to get to be a success;
- ... you don't need to run away from trouble and live-in fear that he who has the most toys wins;
- ... every loss you endured for the kingdom will be made up to you a thousand-fold;
- ... there is no ultimate risk in the cause of truth and love; nothing can defeat you;
- ... the decay of your body is prelude to glory;
- ... you will be made completely whole with no impurity and no struggle with lust or greed or covetousness or fear or inferiority or cowardice or painful memories or paralyzing shame;
- ... there will be no mourning or crying or tears or pain for the former things will pass away;
- ... every injustice will be rectified and every evil will be recompensed and every wrong made right;
- ... and those who are in Christ will rise with him never to die again, and God will be our God and we will be his people, and the glory of the Lord will be our light and our joy forever.

The witness of God in Scripture, the witness of all the martyrs and all the people of God for two thousand years, is that these things are indeed so. Let your response be a life of faith and love and joy and praise.<sup>2</sup>

Believe God About Who He Is and Who You Are in Christ

To become who we are in Christ is to believe that because you are in Christ all your needs will be met. Believe that because you are in Christ you will never be separated from the unfailing love of God. Believing these things is to be satisfied with all that God is for you in Christ, and to become all that you are in him.

tionary death for our sins to pay the penalty for our sins, but in some way it was a transforming death so that out of that transaction we become new creatures.

2 Corinthians 5:17 (ESV)

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

Relevance to Your Whole Life

“Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life” (6:4)

Something profound has happened to us so that we walk "in newness of life."

"Newness of life" – that's everything – not a part of life, all of life.

Because Christ conquered death, he can give his followers the strength they need to overcome sin, a strength limited only by their will to appropriate it.

Freedom from Sin in all of Life

This is not about a little religious corner of your life. It is about all of your life.

Newness of Life guaranteed by the Resurrection.

“For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.” (6:5)

The actions described here are best understood as divine determinations.

Through faith in Christ, God unites us with his Son in death—not that he did not die his own death (the cross) apart from us, but that God reckoned we who would later believe to be present with and in his death. That being the case, the consequence is the same regarding his resurrection.

Union with Christ

"We have become united with Him." (6:5)

The Importance of This Union

Do you want to be free from the blinding effects of spiritual ignorance? Do you want to have the righteousness of Christ credited to your account and be accepted and acquitted and justified by God? Do you want to have the sanctifying power of Christ in your life helping you overcome canceled sin? Do you want to be delivered in the end from misery and death? Cherish your union with Christ.

What If It's True?

So that's what I want to ask you this morning: What if it's true that Christ rose from the dead; that he will never die again, and death has no dominion over him so that he is the Lord of the universe; that by faith we are united to him in his death and rise with him to live forever? What if it is true?

*A Word About Communion at Grace This is a time for all people to seek the Lord. For Christians, Communion (also called The Lord's Supper or The Eucharist, which means 'thanksgiving') is a time to meet with their Savior by faith, to be strengthened and renewed by Him as they eat bread and drink wine. All Christians who trust in Christ alone as their Savior and Lord, belong to a church that embraces the gospel, are at peace with their fellow neighbor, and seek strength and grace to live more faithfully to Christ, are invited to participate. If you are not a Christian, or if you are not prepared to share in this meal, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer and to consider more deeply your relationship to Jesus Christ. We also ask that children who have not yet publicly professed their faith in Christ refrain from partaking until doing so.

Message

The Relevance of the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ

Romans 6:1–7 (ESV)

What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? <sup>2</sup>By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? <sup>3</sup>Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? <sup>4</sup>We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. <sup>5</sup>For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. <sup>6</sup>We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. <sup>7</sup>For one who has died has been set free from sin.

Introduction

The resurrection of Jesus Christ is a fact. It is a well-documented fact that Jesus died, was crucified by the Romans under Pontius Pilate, was placed into the tomb, on the third day the tomb was empty, He was risen, He was seen by over 500 eyewitnesses at once along with numerous other appearances to His disciples. That fact of His resurrection is attested by a myriad of personal eyewitnesses and by the ongoing life of the church as well.

The Spiritual Significance of the Resurrection

It is in a very real sense not just a historical event that happened 2,000 years ago, it is a present reality that is happening again and again, spiritually speaking to many people.

To put it simply, the resurrection of Jesus Christ was not just His resurrection, it was yours and mine as well.

When Christ died, I died; when Christ rose, I rose. When He died my sins were paid for, when He rose my new life was guaranteed. That's the spiritual meaning of the resurrection. That's the profound intent of Paul in Romans 6 to have us grasp this tremendous truth.<sup>1</sup>

I Am Not What I Used to Be

Christ's Calvary was my Calvary and Christ's resurrection was my resurrection and I am one with Him and I am not what I used to be. The death was that our old self died when Jesus died. It was not only a substitu-
