Jesus Calling....

I am calling you to a life of constant communion with Me. Basic training included learning to live above your circumstances, even while interacting on that cluttered plane of life. You yearn for a simplified lifestyle so that your communication with Me can be uninterrupted. But I challenge you to relinquish the fantasy of an uncluttered world. Accept each day just as it comes, and find Me in the midst of it all.

Talk with Me about every aspect of your day, including your feeling. Remember that your ultimate goal is not to control or fix everything around you; it is to keep communing with Me. A successful day is one in which you have stayed in touch with Me, even if many things remain undone at the end of the day. Do not let your to-do list (written or mental) become an idol directing your life. Instead, ask My Spirit to guide you moment by moment. He will keep you close to Me.

a day-by-day, hour-by-hour walk. What is incredible is that God desires our fellowship every day along this journey. Indeed, we were created to enjoy this fellowship with God. We cannot, however, walk in ongoing fellowship with God if we are hiding or holding onto sin in our lives. To walk in the light is to simply allow the Holy Spirit to search our hearts and expose our sin that we might turn from it. If we will thus walk in the light, we have the joy of also walking with God.

If we are walking in darkness, we should not expect to have a close fellowship with the God of light.

Walking In The Light

Dr. Paul Chappell

If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

1 John 1:6-7

In Jesus' day no one was more outwardly religious than the Pharisees. They went to great lengths to call attention to their piety. They wanted to be sure that everyone knew they were devoted followers of the law. In reality, they were anything but such followers. Instead they used their outward form of religious observance to mask their disobedience to God. That tendency is still with us today. Some people seem to think that if they sing loudly and give generously and dress modestly and attend church regularly, everything is good. But those good things do not make up for hidden sin.

Each one of us must answer to God for whether we are walking in light or walking in darkness—not just where others can see but where only He can. God will never accept words in place of obedience. Jesus asked the question: "And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" (Luke 6:46). We may be able to deceive others, but God knows every part of our hearts. And we can only have close fellowship with Him as we walk in the light.

The Christian life is not lived in a moment. It is
