Jesus Calling.... Come to me for understanding since I know you far better than you know yourself. I comprehend you in all your complexity; no detail of your life is hidden from Me. I view you through eyes of grace, so don't be afraid of My intimate awareness. Allow the Light of My healing Presence to shine into the deepest recesses of your being—cleansing, healing, refreshing, and renewing you. Trust Me enough to accept the full forgiveness that I offer you continually. This great gift, which cost Me My life, is yours for all eternity. Forgiveness is at the very core of My abiding Presence. I will never leave you or forsake you.

When no one else seems to understand you, simply draw closer to Me. Rejoice in the One who understands you completely and loves you perfectly. As I fill you with My Love, you become a reservoir of love, overflowing into the lives of other people.

Psalms 139:1-4; 2 Corinthians 1:21-22; Joshua 1:5

the plagues that ravaged their Egyptian neighbors. They did not recall the way the different plagues had explicitly revealed the weakness of the various gods worshiped by the Egyptians.

Instead they despaired. They told Moses they wished he had left them as slaves. When God did not immediately remove every obstacle from their path, their faith vanished. All of us are going to experience times when things don't go as we wish. In those moments, we must remember that God is in control, and doing what He knows is best..

Hard times are not evidence that God has abandoned us; they are an opportunity to see His power on display.

Dr. Paul Chappell

Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness. And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever. The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

Exodus 14:12-14

For years as they labored as slaves in Egypt, the children of Israel cried out to God for deliverance. They despaired when Pharaoh gave the command for all male Hebrew babies to be killed. They had no freedom or ability to control their own lives. When Moses came, many of them rejoiced that the ancient promises of God to His people were being remembered and fulfilled. After ten plagues devastated the land of Egypt, and Pharaoh finally agreed to let them go, they went out loaded down with treasure, heading for the land promised to their people by God.

Yet they did not find that trip to be what they expected. When they were confronted by the Red Sea, with Pharaoh's army pursuing them, they despaired. They did not recall the power of God they had seen displayed time and time again, even extending to protecting them from
