Events and Opportunities

Jesus Calling....

I am the Potter; you are My clay. I designed you before the foundation of the world. I arrange the events of each day to form you into this preconceived pattern. My everlasting Love is a work in every event of your life. On some days your will and Mine flow smoothly together. You tend to feel in control of your life when our wills are in harmony. On other days you feel as if you are swimming upstream, against the current of My purposes. When that happens, stop and seek My Face. The opposition you feel may be from Me, or it may be from the evil one. Talk with Me about what you are experiencing. Let My Spirit guide you through treacherous waters. As you move through the turbulent stream with Me, let circumstances mold you into the one I desire you to be. Say yes to your Potter as you go through this day.

Isaiah 64: 8; Psalm 27: 8

can remain firm. The fact that others are not going to church and not believing God does not have to impact our trust in Him. The key to standing firm is to keep our thoughts grounded on the Word of God. Those who have no faith like to falsely claim that God does not keep His promises. But if we look back on what He has done, both through the centuries and in our own lives, we will see that He is always faithful. The delay in the fulfillment of some promises is not a failing on God's part, but simply a matter of His timetable.

The uncertainty of the world around us should drive us to the Word of God to strengthen our faith.

But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days. People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God—having a form of godliness but denying its power.
~2 Timothy 3:1-5

Invitation

This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance: That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour: Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

2 Peter 3:1-4

According to the Gallup Poll released in March, only 47 percent of Americans say that they are members of a religious organization of any kind—church, mosque, synagogue, temple, or something else. Of course, many of those groups are not preaching and teaching an exclusively Bible message. Even so, 47 percent is the lowest figure ever measured by the poll, compared to some 70 percent who said they belonged to a religious group just twenty years ago. It is a sign of the changes in our overall culture, but it is also a sign of the changes within the church. None of this is unexpected to those who understand the Bible. Both Peter and Paul referred to the downgrading and rejection of truth that would come in the last days.

In the face of critics and skeptics, our faith
