

Catholic Parish of St Edmund, King and Martyr, Godalming

with St Joseph's, Milford

Through the love of the Father, Son and Spirit, our Parish will grow as the Body of Christ in Godalming and as a sign lifted up for the peoples

Third Week of Easter - 18th April 2021

During the season of Easter the readings at Mass take us through the Acts of the Apostles, the story of the first church, as it continues the mission of Jesus and fulfils the prophesy he makes at the end of St Luke's Gospel. It is an appropriate time for us as a parish to reflect on who we are and why we are. I would therefore like to open a discussion about how we might articulate this and reflect on some of the things I shared with you last year.

I come that they may have life and have it abundantly.

This possible tagline comes from John 10:10. A few translations talk about fullness of life, but abundance has, I think, a rather more dynamic sense. It translates the Greek word perisson, which carries a sense of excess or exceeding expectation, rather like the way in which a well-known brand makes exceedingly good cakes.

In our parish, Jesus Christ calls and forms his disciples, everyday saints, who are filled with the abundant life that he showers on them and whose joy is made complete as they call others to share that same life.

This is a first draft of a vision statement. It tries to make it clear that the primary agent is Jesus Christ, who works through our parish and talks about us as his disciples. Discipleship describes us as apprentices learning from and becoming like their master. It is a concept that is absolutely central to Christian self-understanding in the 21st century and is prominent in church teaching going back to the Second Vatican Council. It derives from the Gospels themselves and the Lord's mandate at the end of Matthew's Gospel. The concept of everyday saints is something that Pope Francis uses to make real for us the universal call to holiness of the Council. It is a reminder that holiness is at heart something simple and to which we are all called. (See too Pope Benedict's address to school children in Twickenham in 2010.) It goes on to speak of the "abundant life" as that which the disciples receive. It concludes with a missionary mandate, drawing on the way in which St John opens his first letter.

Coming slowly out of lockdown

Weekend Masses after Easter have more or less resumed their usual times. While numbers are not too high we will continue to book using Eventbrite.

As infection rates are relatively low in the area we have changed to 1.5m distancing at St Joseph's and St Edmund's. We will keep this under review, mindful that not everyone has been vaccinated yet. Please sit as directed to ensure that we maintain this and take care not to close the space by kneeling when someone in front of you is sitting.

Sycamore After good interest in our January pilot and following on the diocesan mission, Invited, we are now thinking about how best to follow through with some more Sycamore. Online? Small groups once we can meet again in person? A larger group in person in St Joseph's? If you can help and/or host a group of 6 at home, please let Fr Jonathan know in the next couple of weeks. It would be good to build a small team to take this forward for as many as possible.

Parish Forum Tuesday 4th May 8.00pm on Zoom. The agenda will focus mainly on parish finances for 2020 and comments on the draft vision on the front page of this newsletter. Comments and suggestions on the vision can be made by email to Fr Jonathan, or preferably on the 'padlet' <https://tinyurl.com/5xezk9tb>

Confirmation Preparation There will be an initial meeting online for parents and candidates at 7.30pm on 20th April. Preparation will start in May. Any young people currently in Year 10 or above who would like to explore this sacrament please contact Fr Jonathan as soon as possible.

Matt Blake from the Trinity Trust Team will be moving away from Godalming this week. He has made a significant contribution to the life of our parish, and especially to our young people, and we would like to make a small presentation to him. If you wish to contribute, please put your donation in a marked envelope and pass to Fr Jonathan by Sunday evening (18th April).

Missio - the Pope's Charity Whilst much of Nick de Caesteker's activity in emptying Red Boxes in 2020 was curtailed, the parish still raised £1,187 through Red Boxes and donations to Missio and Mill Hill Missionaries. They, and the communities they serve, live in such difficult circumstances, made even harder by COVID 19, and they are so grateful that we are supporting them through prayer and our generous donations. If anyone has boxes to be emptied or would like help with a standing order please contact Nick on 07985 096233 or nickdec1@btinternet.com More information about Missio at <https://missio.org.uk/>
