Discussion Questions:

Daniel stood poised in the face of danger, power, and authority but spoke the truth with boldness. Why is it so hard to speak truth to power?

What difference will it make in your life if you see yourself as having been placed where you are by God to make his word known and intelligible?

Daniel's life was on the line, yet he prayed and then was calm. What truths about God do we need to believe in order to do the same?

How and when do you need to follow Daniel's example?
