Do you know someone with a hostile attitude toward God? It can be hard to imagine such a person accepting the Lord's salvation, but no one is beyond the reach of our loving heavenly Father. Saul of Tarsus is a perfect example. This self-righteous Pharisee was so confident of his obedience to God's Law that he couldn't see his need for a Savior. His goal was to get rid of Christians, but God had other plans for his life. Jesus appeared to him in a blinding light and confronted him about his persecution of the church. Saul repented, placed his trust in the Savior, and spent the rest of his life spreading the good news that salvation comes through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Conviction of sin is an uncomfortable but important step for a life of faith. Before we can understand our need for a Savior, we must recognize the hopelessness of our sinful condition. Then we can repent and receive the forgiveness of sins through faith in Jesus Christ. Like Paul, we are saved only because God reached down to rescue us. And He will never leave or forsake us (Heb. 13:5) but is always present to mold us into Christlikeness.
