Third Sunday after Pentecost

Prelude

Welcome

Call to Worship

Leader: In Jesus Christ, a light of hope shines brightly in all the world.

People: May the light of Jesus Christ shine brightly upon us.

Leader: May this light nourish and guide us.

People: May Christ's light show us our pathway to new life.

All: Let us now worship in the joy of Christ's light shining brightly for us.

Hymn # 662

Christ, Whose Glory Fills the Skies

Confession

We pray to you, most holy, wholly God, from the depth of our segmented souls. We confess that we see clearly the speck in our neighbor's eye. Place before us your spiritual mirror, that we might see the log in our own eye. We are a people divided by specks and logs. We confess our individual divisions. We know the soul-sick pain and divisiveness of anger, rejection, fear and betrayal. Heal us of our divisions, O Great Physician. We confess our corporate divisions. We know the separating lines of gender, color, nationality and language that preoccupy our minds and divide us as a body of Christ. Heal us of our divisions, O Doctor of the soul. Send into our personal souls and the corporate soul of this congregation the healing power of your Holy Spirit. Reconcile us to ourselves, to each other, and especially to you. Make us your wholly, holy people once again.

Affirmation of Faith

We believe in the grace freely offered in Jesus Christ,
in the atoning work of Christ's death on the cross,
in the power of forgiveness to change lives.
in the redemption that turns sinners into saints,
in the wholeness that mercy brings,
in the freedom that liberates us from sin's hold,
in the new life that is ours, now and for eternity.
Amen.
