A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Hello Family,

Two weeks ago I had the distinguished pleasure of walking through the Gospel with you all on Sunday. As you recall, we broke it down into the "three circles." What a powerful moment when God revealed this hope and truth to me for the first time. Growing up in the church, I had heard the Gospel many times, but it truly takes help from God to understand it beyond just hearing it. At the young age of eight, my father and I were bass fishing together in a small boat. My father laid out the three circles for me. My feeble, young eyes were able to see my wickedness and sin, because of God's grace. I was able to see the wake of brokenness I was leaving behind in the lives of my family and friends. I knew my need for a savior and I believed in the one True Savior I had learned about for all those years. It was in that moment that I repented and began my path to loving and pursuing God. I count this moment as my salvation story, and it was followed by believers' baptism. I know many of you have had a similar moment. Since that day, I've promised to "go and do" whatever God tells me to do, not an alien to sin, but always seeking for recovery and pursuit. I would be honored to hear your salvation story. I would love to see the legacy of the church and God's word in your life and your family's life. Please feel free to email me at DawjrWood@gmail.com and share your story with me. Moving forward together as a family!
