CHURCH CLEANING

Our church is prepared for services each week by HBC volunteers who do the vacuuming and necessary cleaning. Please sign up today on the sign up sheet in the foyer.

Jesus Calling

I want you to be all Mine, filled with the light of My Presence. I gave everything for you by living as a man, then dying for your sins and living again. Hold back nothing from Me. Bring your most secret thoughts into the Light of My Love. Anything you bring to Me I transform and cleanse from darkness. I know everything about you, far more than you know of yourself. But, I restrain My yearning to "fix" you, waiting instead for you to come to Me for help. Imagine the divine restraint this requires, for I have all Power in Heaven and On Earth.

Seek My Face with a teachable spirit. Come into My Presence with thanksgiving, desiring to be transformed.

Matthew 28:18 Psalm 100:4

Seek My Face, and you will find fulfillment of your deepest longings. My world is filled with beautiful things; they are meant to be pointers to Me, reminders of My abiding Presence. The earth still declares My Glory to those who have eyes that see and ears that hear.

You had a darkened mind before you sought Me wholeheartedly. I chose to pour My Light into you so that you can be a beacon to others. There is no room for pride in this position. Your part is to reflect My Glory, I am the Lord!

Psalm 105:4 Psalm 19:1-2 Isaiah 60:2

declaring unto you the testimony of God. For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified" (1 Corinthians 2:1-2). The more that we love Jesus, the more we will talk about Him. And the more we are controlled by the Holy Spirit, the more we will talk about Jesus, for that is what the Spirit speaks of above all else.

Herbert Buffum, Jr. wrote:

Let's talk about Jesus, the King of kings is He, The Lord of lords, supreme, throughout eternity The Great I Am, the Way, the Truth, the Life, the Door

Let's talk about Jesus more and more!

Our love for Jesus should so fill our hearts and minds that talk of Him fills our mouths as well.

I know that I have to move from speaking about Jesus to letting him speak within me, from thinking about Jesus to letting him think within me, from acting for and with Jesus to letting him act through me. I know the only way for me to see the world is to see it through his eyes.

Speaking Of Jesus

Dr. Paul Chappell

I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

John 16:12-14

Studies show that, depending on age, culture, and setting, most people speak between 7,000 and 20,000 words per day. I'm sure you know someone who is at one of or the other of those extremes. If you asked most people to recount what they talked about during a given day, they would struggle. They might remember part of a few conversations, or a particularly intense exchange they had with someone. But by and large, most of the things over the course of a day are not particularly memorable. Those words may not stand out, but they do reveal what is in our thoughts and what matters to us. And there is one topic that should be most on our lips—revealing what we care about more than anything else—and that is Jesus Christ.

Paul wrote to the Corinthians, "And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom,
