Jesus Calling

I am creating something new in you: a bubbling spring of Joy that spills over into others' lives. Do not mistake this Joy for your own or try to take credit for it in any way. Instead, watch in delight as My Spirit flows through you to bless others. Let yourself become a reservoir of the Spirit's fruit.

Your part is to live close to Me, open to all that I am doing in you. Don't try to control the streaming of My Spirit through you. Just keep focusing on Me as we walk through every day together. Enjoy My Presence, which permeates you with Love, Joy, and Peace. John 3:8 Galatians 5:22

Before we may look back on the religious leaders' failure with too much judgment, we should remember that the disciples didn't get it either. Those men who had been chosen and spent time with Jesus day after day failed to grasp what He meant. It was not until after the resurrection that they put the pieces together.

We live in an age that thrives on display. Bigger and louder and longer are the driving forces of our culture. Yet we don't need signs any more than the Pharisees did. We need instead to do what the disciples did after Jesus rose from the dead—believe the Scriptures.

We do not need any kind of special signs to believe that all God says in His Word is true.

Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? But he spake of the temple of his body. When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. John 2:18-22

Jesus was not accepted with open arms by most of the religious leaders of His day. There were a few exceptions (such as Nicodemus), but by and large Jesus was viewed with suspicion and skepticism throughout His ministry. This was not because of anything He did that was wrong, for He was perfect. Instead it was because they did not want to believe. More than once they asked Jesus to provide them some kind of sign that He was the Messiah. Yet to demand a sign was really a demand for more signs. Jesus had already been declared to be the Messiah by John the Baptist. He was working miracles, casting out demons, healing the sick, and even bringing the dead back to life. If those were not enough, what sign would be?
