

Harvest Baptist Church - 'Where church still feels like church'
Events and Opportunities

There is a great longing in the human heart for things that last. We desire things that are dependable, because we realize so many things are not. Only God can provide what we need and seek. Only God is able to set up an eternal kingdom that will never be conquered or destroyed. Only God can truly offer guarantees about things to come. That is such a comfort to those of us who know Him because it gives us a lasting foundation on which we can build our lives.

We can trust God's promises about the future because He will always be there to keep them.

Jesus Calling

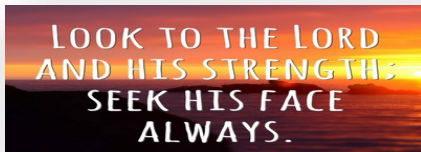

I am the Truth: the One who came to set you free. As the Holy spirit controls your mind and actions more fully, you become free in Me. You are increasingly released to become the one I created you to be. This is a work that I do in you as you yield to My Spirit. I can do My best handiwork when you sit in the stillness of My Presence, focusing your entire being on Me.

Let My thoughts burst freely upon your consciousness, stimulating abundant Life. I am the Way and the Truth and the Life. As you follow Me, I lead you along paths of newness: ways you have never imagined. Don't worry about what is on the road up ahead. I want you to find your security in knowing Me, the One who died to set you free.

John 8:32 Philippians 2:13 John 14:6

Stay calmly conscious of Me today, no matter what. Remember that I go before you as well as with you into the day. Nothing takes Me by surprise. I will not allow circumstances to overwhelm you so long as you look to me. I will help you cope with whatever the moment presents. Collaborating with Me brings blessing that far outweigh all your troubles. Awareness of My Presence contains Joy that can endure all eventualities.

Psalms 23: 1-4 2 Corinthians 4:16-17

And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

Daniel 2:44-45

The ancient Mayan Empire once covered much of Mexico and Central America. It was a highly advanced civilization for its time, developing great skill in mathematics and astronomy. To the millions who lived there, it must have seemed like it would last forever. Yet more than a thousand years ago, it collapsed. Today, only a few ruins and fragments of records remain to show that there was once a great kingdom that flourished. All human kingdoms have a life cycle. They rise, and then they fall. God's kingdom is different; it is eternal.

When Daniel interpreted the dream of the king of Babylon, God revealed to him the vast sweep of human history that was to come. But God's plan does not end with man. Instead He is the end and purpose of all that happens. He is the stone shaped without human hands. He is eternal.
