Jesus Calling

Let My Love stream through you, washing away fear and distrust. A trusting response included Me in Your thoughts as you consider strategies to deal with a situation. My continual Presence is a promise, guaranteeing that you never have to face anything alone. My children teethe on the truth that I am always with them, yet they stumble around in a stupor, unaware of My loving Presence all around them. How that grieves Me!

When you walk through a day in trusting dependence on Me, My aching heart is soothed. Gently bring your attention back to Me whenever it wanders away. I look for persistence - rather that perfection - in your walk with Me.

Psalm 52:8 Deut. 31:6 Eph. 4:30

Hold My Hand - and trust. So long as you are conscious on My Presence with you, all is well. It is virtually impossible to stumble while walking in the Light with Me. I designed you to enjoy Me above all else. You find the deepest fulfillment of your heart in Me alone.

Fearful, anxious thoughts melt away in the Light of My Presence. When you turn away from Me, you are vulnerable to the darkness that is at work in the world. Don't be surprised by how easily you sin when you forget to cling to My hand. In the world, dependency is seen as immaturity. But in My kingdom, dependence on Me is a prime measure of maturity.

prophesied of Him (in the passage from Matthew 21 above, He was quoting from Psalm 118:22-23), but had also prophesied their rejection of Him. Their rejection of Christ only hurt themselves. Rather than humbling themselves before Him, they determined to stand in His way and reject the very miraculous and marvelous work of God.

Those of us who have trusted Christ as our Savior have obviously not rejected Jesus the way the religious leaders of His day did. But we do sometimes lift our hearts up in pride and insist that our way is better than what God has instructed in His Word. Instead, we should humble ourselves before God and gladly receive His instructions and provision.

Every time we reject God's Word and His truth, we are not harming Him but ourselves.

Our salvation cost God the crucifixion of His Son on the cross. There is no other way to be saved except through Jesus. In Christ we are transformed from the inside out and made a new creation. The heart of stone is removed and we are given a new heart of flesh and a new spirit.

Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

Matthew 21:42-44

The religious leaders and political authorities in Jesus' day thought that by rejecting Him they would be able to keep Him from accomplishing His mission. They thought Jesus needed their approval and acceptance. They were wrong. Because God is all-powerful, He does not need anything from us for His plans to succeed. In his sermon to the superstitious Athenians, the apostle Paul said, "God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things" (Acts 17:24-25). God starts out having already won every conceivable battle, and it is folly to stand against Him.

Jesus specifically told those who were rejecting Him that the Old Testament had not only
