The Bible in One Year Week 28: Unashamed (Romans Pt. 1)

Romans 1:1-17

The Church in Rome

- When Paul wrote to the Romans, he had not yet met them. The church there had likely been planted by another prominent early Christian leader: P_____
- The church in Rome was deeply divided among Jewish and Gentile believers.

In Romans, Paul explains the depths of the Gospel in order to encourage their faith and show that this Gospel was the basis for their unity.

The Gospel

- The Greek word for “Gospel” was not originally a religious word, but a public declaration of some new development that was good for the empire.
- Romans shows us that the Good News of Christ is:

The Gospel of a New King

The Gospel of a New Community

The Gospel of a New Life

A Gift of Faith
