A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Good morning,

If you're like me, you've spent the last few weeks watching the Olympics. While I'm not an avid olympics watcher, I do enjoy seeing sports played that I've never seen before. Thursday night Becca and I watched handball, and that was a new one for both of us! Growing up overseas, rugby is a sport that I am more familiar with and enjoy watching. The way the players toss the Rugby ball methodically down the line as each player tackles the defense in front of them is rather entertaining! In a similar way, I would love to see Memorial grow into a church with a culture of teamwork. The goal is to reach every man, woman and child with the Gospel! All the members of our team play a role in this goal. All too often in churches we pit committees and volunteers against one another, rather than functioning as a large team. Sometimes we have too many defensive players and other times we have too many offensive players and the ball never moves down the field. We ought to function as a large team, helping one another when we fumble, recovering the ball when we go out of bounds, cheering one another on as we make our way down the field. We do not want to be a church that doesn't move the ball down the field because we are too consumed in playing like an individual and not a team. We must stay focused on the goal and remember the people running beside us are our brothers and sisters on the same team all working towards the same goal. As part of the revitalization of MBC, this next year we will be working with all committees on transitioning to healthy teams. Part of this transition will be refocusing on our goal as Christians. We want teams to function in a way that makes "getting the ball" down the field easier, not weighing the teammates down.
