A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Good morning,

The middle of August brings a season unlike fall, spring, summer or winter. The middle of August brings "Back to school" season! Often families swing back into school-year rhythms. Kids adjust to waking up before the sun. While you prepare this week for back to school, my prayer for you is that you take time to remember "why you do, what you do." These are reminders for all of us, regardless of our status in school.

1. Studying and learning is important. If you can't read, you can't read God's Word. Learning to read complex literature and various genres ultimately will help us learn more about God through His Word.
2. God can be glorified in your work ethic. Study hard and don't be lazy in your pursuit of knowledge.
3. Extracurricular activities, sports, studying, school and friendships are all important parts of our lives, but they are not THE most important part of our life. If you don't have time for growing in your love and adoration for God, it's time to reprioritize.
4. No matter how hard you work this year, it will never lead you to a fulfilled and satisfied life. God loves you and offers a fulfilling and satisfying life in and through Jesus Christ. Your hope ought to be firmly and securely resting in Jesus!
5. Be noticed for the right thing. Whether that be going out of your way to help a younger classmate, staying after school to serve a teacher, humbly submitting to the leadership of your teacher, befriending hard to love classmates, always using kind and gentle words, or just living above reproach- the Lord has called us to live set-apart lives. Look for opportunities to share the hope you have through Jesus. Schools are filled with people who are desperate for HOPE.

As a church, Let's commit to praying for our students daily this week.

THANK YOU: Thank you for the love and support you provided to the family and friends of Beverly H. Greene. The meal you provided was delicious and was very much enjoyed by all. Your effort helped us all through a very difficult time. Thank you!! The Family of Beverly H. Greene
