

PARENT PARTNER

WEEKLY PLAN

Week 2: The People Of Humility

Humility looks like who we are as a people of faith. The work of being humble is not just a personal practice but a collective witness. We are called as families, church, and believers to embody Christ-resembling humility. It is how we are called to live within the world and alongside one another.

PRAYER TIME

THIS IS YOUR DAILY SCRIPTURE:

The Lord is good and upright; therefore he shows sinners the way. He leads the humble in what is right and teaches them his way (Ps. 25:8-9).

THIS IS YOUR DAILY PRAYER:

Lord, You are good and upright. You show sinners Your way, which I am one.
Lord, You lead those that are humble in what is right and teach them Your ways.
Lord, reveal to me now what is right and show me Your ways.

DRIVE TIME

CONVERSATION

PARENT PRE-READING: Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud; instead, associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own estimation (Rom. 12:16).

CONVERSATION STARTER: I was reading in Romans 12 and it talks about living in harmony with one another. What can we do when we find that we are not in harmony with one another?

DINNER TIME

CONVERSATION

STARTING QUESTIONS

Is there someone in your school, teams, or activities that other students seem to bully? Why does this happen? What is your response?

READ THIS TOGETHER Do nothing out of selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility consider others as more important than yourselves (Phil 2:3).

SCRIPTURAL APPLICATION QUESTIONS

What do you believe this passage is saying when it says, “Do nothing out of selfish ambition or conceit”? Is this easy or difficult for you?

Why do you think God would want us to see others as more important than ourselves?

How might it hurt how we see others if our view of ourselves is damaged? For example, should we see ourselves as dumb or ugly? How would this affect the way we treat others?

ACTIVITY TIME

GIFT TO A STRANGER

Humility allows us to see the value and worth of other people. We live in a world that is fast-paced and everyone seems to be out for their own desires. As a family, find a fun and creative way to simply bless a stranger or neighbor. Buying the coffee of the person behind you in line is a simple and easy way to show someone that there is still love in the world. God has blessed each of us with different means and abilities. Use what God has given you to be a blessing.