August 18th School Begins Pray for our Children and Educators

Lord, help our educators make the right decisions as we send our children back to school. They need your love and power to help them overcome difficulties. Give them your protection and help them to lean upon you when they face the trials of life.

Give our children boldness and strength and show them that they can depend upon You. Let them be kind, offering help and showing compassion towards others.

Make them eager to learn, to grasp hold of what they need to know and to be quick to understand.

They are a light in a dark world. Help them to stand for You!

Thank you for being merciful to us. Amen
