

September 2021

Over the last few months we have prayed for our pastors throughout North America. This month we will pray over our congregations, that they may be local gatherings of God's disciple-making family. Please pray that the following Scripture passages would be transformational for the CLB in North America.

Thank you for your faithful prayers,

Nick Mundis, Director
North American Mission

"For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them."
