

PARENT PARTNER

WEEKLY PLAN

Week 3: Love For One Another

There is an outflow of God's love and it is for us to love one another. The second greatest command is like the first because the first informed it, shaped it, and molded us into seeing what love actually looks like, and therefore, we are to love one another.

PRAYER TIME

THIS IS YOUR DAILY SCRIPTURE:

Finally, all of you be like-minded and sympathetic, love one another, and be compassionate and humble (1 Peter 3:8).

THIS IS YOUR DAILY PRAYER:

Lord, I pray that my family knows You. You make us like-minded and sympathetic. May we love one another and be compassionate and humble with each other.

DRIVETIME

CONVERSATION

PARENT PRE-READING: Hatred stirs up conflicts, but love covers all offenses (Prov. 10:12)

CONVERSATION STARTER: I was reading in Proverbs 10 and it says that love covers all offenses. How do you think we can show love to people when there might be tension or conflict around us?

DINNER TIME

CONVERSATION

STARTING QUESTIONS

Can you think of a time in your life when someone showed you great kindness? What was your response?

READ THIS TOGETHER Luke 10:29-37

SCRIPTURAL APPLICATION QUESTIONS

So often, we like to imagine ourselves as the hero of the story. The one who does the rescuing. But in this story, who do you believe represents the work of Jesus? How has Jesus shown you personally how He can heal the hurting?

If we call ourselves followers of Jesus, why is it so important that we would treat those that are hurting the way He would?

Who is someone you know personally that you need to show more love and compassion toward? Is this easy or difficult for you? What sacrifice might you have to make to love them like Christ has loved you?

ACTIVITY TIME

HOMELESS MINISTRY OPPORTUNITY

There are many people who are hurting or displaced in our communities. If your community has a homeless shelter or food bank, work together as a family to find a way to serve. This may take a sacrifice of energy, time, or even finances on your part. This is a great time to have a conversation with your children about our thankfulness for what we have and our ability to help others.