Tired???

Are you tired? I don't know how you wouldn't be tired yet. It seems like life has just been really hard for a long time. Covid, wars, the economy, and natural disasters weigh heavy on each of our hearts. We have good reason to be tired. Our God understands. Paul described his own exhaustion when he said, "we are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies" (2 Cor 4:8-10). Paul was tired, but he didn't give up because there was hope, purpose, and someone to rely on.

Jesus shows us how to continue on when we are crushed. After he was terrorized, beaten, whipped, flogged, and nailed to the cross, Jesus finally laid down his life. As his earthly life came to a close, Jesus said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit" (Lk 23:46). Jesus' words give us an example of how to continue when we are ready to give up. First, we see Jesus finding peace in prayer. Prayer should always be our first and favorite option. Secondly, Jesus went to his Father. God is life. When we feel as though all is lost, remember that God is the fullness of life to whom we might run. Finally, Jesus demonstrated his trust in God's care when he prayed, "into your hands I commit my spirit."

Are you tired? Tired of covid? Tired of the bad news? Tired of all the troubles of life? Maybe you feel like you're just tired of life? Remember your God. Go to him in prayer. Trust him. Rely on him.

Donnie L. DeBord, M.Div, Th.M

BIBLE RESEARCH QUESTION:

Who said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature"?
(answer next week)

KNOW YOUR BIBLE

Boo's Belyeu

With the recent flooding it seemed impossible to write about anything else. We wonder why bad things happen to seemingly innocent and good people. It is impossible to answer it fully in one little article. The summation of the suffering of Job is where we look. Yet its answer is God saying, I am God and you are not Job chapters 38-41. Job's response was you are right. What do we make of it? Because of man/woman sin entered the world, all have sinned Rom. 3:23. Job had the right attitude in Job 13:15 when he said, "though he slay me, I will hope in him." The Psalmist said it this way in Psa. 121:1-2 "I lift up my eyes to the hills. From where does my help come? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth." Psa. 91:1-2 likewise "He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. ²I will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust." We sing about it, "Where could I go but to the Lord." The promise made to us in Rom. 8:28 "And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose." Does this mean we will not suffer, that somehow as Christians we are immune to pain in this world? How is it the Apostles suffered and died? Because the promise is eternal, it is eternity we are promised Rom. 6:8-11 "⁸Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. ⁹We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. ¹⁰For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. ¹¹So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus." We put our trust in God come what may. Prov. 3:5-6 "Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths."
